The musical score is arranged in a system of six staves. The top staff is the Lead line, which is mostly blank with a '1' above the first measure. The second staff is the Guitar line, featuring a melodic line with eighth notes and slurs. The third staff is the Strings line, showing block chords. The fourth and fifth staves are the Piano part, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a bass line. The sixth staff is the Drums part, showing a consistent rhythmic pattern with snare and bass drum hits.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral layout. At the top, the vocal line (Ld) is written in a treble clef with lyrics. Below it is the keyboard part (Kor), also in a treble clef, providing harmonic support. The guitar (Gt) and saxophone (Sx) parts are in treble clef, while the bass (Bs) is in a bass clef. The string section (Str.) and piano (Pno) are shown in their respective staves. The drum part (Drm) is at the bottom, using a standard drum notation with 'x' marks for cymbals and stems for other drums. The score is divided into four measures by vertical bar lines. Above the vocal line, chord symbols are provided for each measure: F, F/A, F/E \flat , B \flat , E \flat , and B \flat . The key signature has two flats (B \flat and E \flat), and the time signature is 4/4.
